- Communist organizers are forming an efficient and secret apparat for northern Galilee, with Kafr Kanna, the most important of the Arab villages in the northern Galilee area, as a focal point. Informant believes that communist activity among these Arabs is about to enter a much more active phase and that Kafr Kamma will serve as the key to northern Galilee for the communist movement. He mentions in this connection that for years the other villages in that area have followed the lead of Kafr Kamma. For the present the chief work of this apparet will be political action and propaganda.
- is almost positive that no direct link 25X1A joins the Communists of Galilee with those of Syria and Lebanon. He believes that communications and directions are received by the Communists in this area from Nazereth, which in turn receives them from Tel Aviv, through Haifa.
